WITH A WATER-LILY.

See, my darling, what I bring-A white-winged blossom of the spring; On the silent stream it lay. Deep in dreams the live-long day. Now, if thou wilt let It rest. Lying on thy loving breast, Again its spreading leaves will hide Just as deep and still a tide, Dangerous, dangerous, 'tis to dream By the deep lake's silent stream! Nixles hade within its bed, Wish hijes floating overhead.

Dear tidine heart, too, is a stream Where 'tis dangerous to dream; Nixles hide within its bed. With lilles flowing overhead.

Manners of the Ameson.

A correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, who recently made a voyage down the Amszon, gives us a glimpse of Brazilian "table man $2 00 PER YEAR

This is my first experience as a prasenger on board of a Brazilian steamer-The Builder of the First Telethat is, a steamer officered by Brazillana exclusively. Being a local company, the passengers are nearly all natives or Por-tuguese; at least, I am the only Englishspeaking person on board. It is trite to say there is no better place to sindy men and jeers and references to "animal mag. to vegetables from the general dish by a metism," &c., has been frequently referred to as a munificent gift in the interest spits at the table, and makes generous of science and the diffusion of intelligence. wipes at his lips with the pendant margin neat and tidy dresser at home, he thinks to say that quite recently, within a period get ashore to have a good wash! Sprightly of five years, the Western Union Tele-graph Company alone paid to the Treasury in taxes $850,000, and in gold duties gaging and entertaining companion, and on imports of telegraphic wire, $328,000 he must be morose, indeed, who could be more. Thus the investment of that $30, too severely critical when among them.
